His Excellency the Embassy's Chief of Protocol Department

May God's peace, mercy, and blessings be upon you,

I wish to inform your Excellency that Sheikh Adel bin Mohammed Al Sadhan has completed the English Language program to which he had been recently dedicating his time. Because he has assumed his work duties at the office, please direct the competent persons regarding re-registering him and his wife, Arlette bint Abdullah Abu-Khaled Al Hashimi, with the US State Department.

Thank you, your Excellency for your help in advance.

May God's peace, mercy, and blessings be upon you,

Director of the Dawah Office in America

Khaled bin Ibrahim Al Suwailam

[Handwritten:] To be respectfully denied.

[Handwritten:] Your Highness,

The abovementioned individual Was employed at the Dawah Office at the Embassy and was registered with the US State Department. He then decided to study English in Missouri. His name was duly removed from the list because diplomatic employees must reside in the vicinity of Washington. After the recent events, the abovementioned individual decided to end his studies and resume his work at the Islamic Dawah Office, and has requested to be re-registered. This will cause the Department [of State] to be suspicious, particularly because his name was removed just seven months ago, approximately. Please be informed and issue your instructions in this regard.

Best regards, 259
